

FINNEA Adds to its Significant Midwest Presence

FINNEA Group, LLC has recently added three new Senior Managing Directors to its Midwest based team. The new additions add to the Firm's experienced and seasoned investment banking team. Each has significant domestic and global merger and acquisition (M&A) experience with deep industry knowledge.

Bob Coury leverages 30 years of capital markets experience at several large global financial services firms to provide advisory services focusing on M&A, financial planning & analysis (FP&A), business strategy, and capital advisory. Most recently, he started and led the U.S. investment banking practice at Deloitte Corporate Finance LLC.

Jack DiFranco comes to the group with over 25 years of M&A transaction and financing experience, most recently leading the KPMG Corporate Finance practice in Detroit. Prior to KPMG, he was the national leader of the investment banking practices for Grant Thornton Corporate Finance LLC and Stout Risius Ross, Inc.

Brian Dragon brings over 20 years of middle market M&A experience and is a recognized leader of institutional capital raises. He served as a managing director of W.Y. Campbell & Company and co-founded a local investment bank prior to joining FINNEA Group. Previously, he worked for Comerica Bank and Arthur Andersen.
